

CAMDEN COUNTY CIACC

(Children's Inter-Agency Coordinating Council)

- What is the CIACC?
 - A county based planning and advisory group composed of individuals from government, private agencies and the community that advise the County and the Department of Children and Families' (DCF) Division of Children's System of Care (DCSOC) regarding children, youth and young adults with serious emotional, behavioral health, intellectual/developmental disabilities and substance abuse challenges.
- What does the CIACC do?
 - Community mechanism to advise the DCF on the development and maintenance of a responsive, accessible, and integrated system of care for children, youth and young adults
 - Enhances the coordination among local children's behavioral health (CSOC) system partners
 - Enhances cross-system planning and coordination at the local level (between CSOC and DCP&P, Education, Juvenile Justice, Substance Abuse, DDD, Adult Mental Health, Social Services, etc.
 - Participate in community assessments to identify service resource gaps and priorities for resource development
 - Participate in Quality Assurance and Continuous Quality Improvement processes within the System of Care
 - Participate and facilitate regional and inter-county activities
 - School Outreach
 - Provide information and referral, regarding where to find, and how to access children's services

 THE CIACC DOES NOT OFFER INDIVIDUAL TREATMENT PLANNING OR CASE MANAGEMENT FOR YOUTH**

- Who participates in the CIACC?
 - Families, caregivers, consumers, youth, community based organizations, county government and planning entities
 - Some areas covered by members of the CIACC are mental health, child welfare, health, education, juvenile justice, substance use, intellectual/developmental disabilities.

For more information on the Camden County CIACC please contact:

Andrew Selby
856.663.3998 ext. 229
aselby@cpachvi.org